Making time for small things

Today, I decided to slow down. 1

I made time for a quiet morning.
～のために時間をつくった

Instead of checking my phone, I opened my notebook. 2

A warm cup of tea helped me settle in.
落ち着く

I wrote down one thing I wanted to remember.

It did not have to be anything special. 3

Small moments can make an ordinary day feel different.

Tomorrow, I want to make time for them again.

1. slow down = take things slowly

2. rather than checking my phone

3. It could be something simple.

Words to keep

☑	make time for + noun	～のために時間をつくる
☐	instead of + -ing	～する代わりに
☐	settle in	落ち着く
☐	write down	書き留める

A useful pattern

Instead of checking my phone, I opened my notebook.

Instead of + -ing / I + past tense

My own words

I make time for a quiet morning.